don't qualify, but if you have muscular dystrophy you do. That's the kind of distinction that the committee amendment, in that respect, is designed to correct. Now you could go on and expand it further based upon the principles that I think you can see underlie the rationale for the committee amendment, but we chose not to go further and, in fact, we did have suggestions from other persons that we should go further. They said that mental disabilities that impair you in some respects are no...

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Time, Senator.

SENATOR WICKERSHAM: ...different than the physical disabilities that we address in the amendment.

PRESIDENT MAURSTAD: Thank you, Senator Wickersham. Senator Chris Peterson.

SENATOR C. PETERSON: Thank you, Mr. Lieutenant Governor, members of the body. And I think this is...this is a wonderful conversation to have because it's certainly bringing out the issues that come before us when we're dealing with a disability issue. And I just would like to reiterate what Senator Wickersham said, that this again also is based on the income level. It's not that you would be able to get this because you were disabled. The second part is that it must be certified by a physician, and I have passed out the form that has to be filed with the county assessor that will allow you to qualify on the grounds of disability for the homestead exemption, and the physician has to fill this out. And if you get down to the part where it says exemptions for qualified individuals, and as Senator Wickersham walked you through, these are the little boxes that you have to fit into: exemption for individualized...individuals paralyzed in both legs so as to preclude locomotion without the regular aid, and then we list those. What this amendment does, it does clarify the issue of mobility, and these all pertain to the issue of mobility, whether you have had been paralyzed in both legs, whether you have undergone an amputation. Those are the two issues that qualify you now. So let's just say what if you are paralyzed in only one leg? And this is the issue that came before me as well as my county board. The gentleman fit into everything except, because of the wording, he was paralyzed in one leg, but
